

Biography

Carol Wong is the director and owner of the Chinatown Learning Center, a bilingual preschool and after school program in Center City near the Convention Center. The Chinatown Learning Center has been serving the Chinatown community in Philadelphia for over 23 years. She has taught various ages from ages two years to adults for over 29 years in English as a Second language, remedial reading and math, as well as preschool and tutoring.

She received a B.A. in Elementary Education and Masters of Reading from Penn State University and then a Masters of Early Childhood Education from West Chester University.

Carol serves on several boards in the Chinatown community and organizations helping women and children. Some of the organizations include: Philadelphia Chinatown Development Corporation (PCDC), National Association for the Asian American Professionals (NAAAP), Asian American Women's Coalition (AAWC), The Philadelphia SUNS - Asian Athletic Youth Program & Lion Dancing group, On Lok Senior Citizen House, Community College of Philadelphia Early Childhood Education Advisory Board, the Delaware Valley Association for the Education of Young Children (DVAEYC), Asian American Autism Coalition, Advisory Board for the Asian American Chamber of Commerce, and most recently appointed to the Governor's Advisory Commission on Asian Pacific American Affairs.

Carol Wong, M.Ed

Director

Chinatown Learning Center

1034 Spring Street

Philadelphia, PA 19107

Tel: 215-922-4227

Fax: 215-922-6367

www.chinatownlearningcenter.com

<https://www.facebook.com/ChinatownLC/>