

Sue Cheng

President,
ABD Internattioanl, LLC

Sue Cheng is the Founder and President of ABD International. For over a decade, Ms. Cheng has been committed to Sino-US business development and cultural exchange.

Sue is currently a member of the board of directors of the Mainline Chinese Culture Center (MLCCC), where, for the last three years (2014-2016), she taught Chinese Calligraphy and Painting.

Ms. Cheng is also on the advisory board of the Asian American Chamber of Commerce of Greater Philadelphia (AACCGP).

Under Sue's leadership, ABD co-organized and co-hosted Chester County's first Sino-American Summit in 2013. Ms.

Cheng played a critical role in creating the sister-municipalities relationship between Chester County and the YongChuan district of Chongqing, China. Sue was also instrumental in establishing the Friendly Relationship between the Chester County Chamber of Business and Industry (CCCBI) and Chongqing Chamber of Industry and Commerce, China.

ABD successfully arranged and supported the Chester County Commissioner's trip to the 17th China Chongqing International Investment and Global Sourcing Fair. In the fall of 2014, as part of the Chester County China Initiative, ABD led a county delegation to visit both Chongqing and other cities in China and to participate in the Sino-American Summit. For the past many years, ABD has been helping to arrange government and business conferences, annual visits between Chester County and the local government of Chongqing, China.

Prior to running her own businesses, Sue worked in IT project management and has over ten years of experience as both a software and mechanical engineer.
